Based on real people and events, Kissing the Corporate Frog introduces you to a new way of looking at leadership-from the bottom up! 21st Century employees have their own ideas about what leadership is-and hierarchical levels & titles have nothing to do with it. Discover the four leadership traits that mean the most to them in this fictionalized account of seven young managers working on a doomed project. The seven members of the Ubiquitous Project Team at Omnipotent Digital Corporation attend a leadership seminar where they reject old theories, identify their generation's role model, and reveal the four leadership traits they look for in management. Eavesdrop on their conversations as they talk about their managers and figure out how to get their company's ill-fated project out the door.
